Funder's original Personality Puzzle was great and it keeps getting better. I would use this book for Personality 101 or a graduate seminar and both audiences would find it very worthwhile. He has good content, he is lucid, has a sense of humor and thinks practically. Hard to find those in one author.

What makes you, you? Psychologists like to talk about our traits, or defined characteristics that make us who we are. But Brian Little is more interested in moments when we transcend those traits -- sometimes because our culture demands it of us, and sometimes because we demand it of ourselves. Join Little as he dissects the surprising differences between introverts and extroverts and explains ...
