Spiritual gifts are all the ministry powers of Jesus Christ divided up and distributed to members of his Body. Spiritual gifts are powers of expressing, celebrating, displaying, and communicating Christ through the power of Christ. Through us, Christ continues to minister to the world. (See Eph 2:17 - "[Christ] came and preached peace to you".)

A spiritual gift or charism is a concept in Christianity that refers to an endowment or extraordinary power given by the Holy Spirit. These are believed by followers to be supernatural graces which individual Christians need to fulfill the mission of the Church. In the narrowest sense, it is a theological term for the extraordinary graces given to individual Christians for the good of others and is distinguished from the graces given for personal sanctification, such as the Seven Gifts of the Ho

The Catholic Church recognizes seven gifts of the Holy Spirit; a listing of these gifts is found in Isaiah 11:2-3. (Saint Paul writes of "manifestations of the Spirit" in 1 Corinthians 12:7-11, and some Protestants use that list to come up with nine gifts of the Holy Spirit, but these are not the same as the ones recognized by the Catholic Church.)

Utterance Gifts . Prophecy - This is the "forth-telling" of the inspired Word of God primarily to the church, for the purpose of confirming the written Word and building up the entire body. The message is usually one of edification, exhortation or consolation, although it can declare God's will in a particular circumstance, and in rare cases, predict future events.
