You're holding in your hands now, Solutions to all of your relationship challenges for now and the future. One of the finest book about love and forgiveness we have ever read, this inspiring book guides us how to reach the full potential to a lasting commitment of joy, peace, forgiveness, and endless love while fulfilling yourself daily. The best-loved teaching and forgiveness show us how we can transform all life difficulties of the couple into a valuable opportunity for building a healthy relationship we have been looking for a long time. When we're talking about love or forgiveness, is there really Western or Eastern love? Does not everyone seek happiness, joy, peace, unconditional love, financial security? Do we not seek a wise, intelligent, and captivating man or woman to build forgiveness and love based on mutual respect, understanding, responsibility, integrity and humility, faithfulness, effective communication, family, and community spirit? Human being is perfectly imperfect, but we can be perfected in love, forgiveness, and kindness. Each of us has already been hurt, betrayed, and despised by our wife or our husband, and would like to hear the words: "I apologize sincerely," "I am sorry for everything that has happened between us," "I truly regret everything," "I love you tremendously,"

"You are adorable," "We will get there. I trust you," "I promise to be faithful, supportive, and loyal." Shouldn't you also think about forgiving, loving, having patience for your husband and for your wife who was yesterday the prince charming or the woman of your dreams who no longer has any value in your eyes today? You're saying, "He's my enemy." Aren't you someone else's enemy? Our greatest enemy, isn't that ourselves? When you remind your husband of things that have happened in the last twenty years, or explain to your friends and colleagues the private life of your relationship or the mistakes of either one of you, aren't you destroying the relationship by thinking you're hurting your husband or wife? sometimes bite the tongue, but they remain together. Let us be merciful and slow to anger, rich in kindness and fidelity. Love is patient; it is full of greatness and sacrifice. Should we not be a source of love in order to know the height, depth, length, and width of love? Love is strong as death. Death, life, and environmental difficulties can never overcome immeasurable love. At the point where we have reached, let us walk with the same step, eye to eye, hand in hand, with the same vision. We have a lot more in common than you think. I only have a minute. Sixty seconds in it. Forced upon me, I did not choose it, but I know that I must use it. Give account if I abuse it. “Honey” Gladwell is living the life she’s always dreamed of. Glamorous escort to hedge fund CEOs and visiting Saudi sheikhs, she is party to a glittering world of wealth and privilege previously glimpsed only through films. But there is a shady side to the gilded path Honey has chosen. One night her fairy tale erupts in brutal violence and she is nearly killed. Raised on the hard streets of Spanish Harlem, sexy ER doctor Marc Sandler has seen his share of domestic violence outside the hospital as well as within it. But when Honey shows up in his ER clothed in vintage couture with a broken wrist and a patchwork of bruises, something tugs at his heart. Honey’s stubborn courage frustrates him but also wins his
