Compensation Fifth Canadian Edition is based upon the strategic choices in managing compensation - pay matters! The Great Recession (late 2000 and early 2010s) had huge ramifications for pay. There were many lessons learned about cutting hours and pay, versus layoffs, or how/why employees are compensated. Pay matters globally as well. Milkovich strives to cull beliefs from facts, wishful thinking from demonstrable results, and opinions from research. Managing compensation is an art and Milkovich is based on strategic choices in managing compensation. These choices, which confront managers, are introduced in the total compensation model in Chapter 1. The model serves as an integrating framework throughout the text. Major compensation issues are covered in the context of current theory, research, and practices. Canadian laws, facts, policies and procedures, and examples are well incorporated throughout.

This is the eBook of the printed book and may not include any media, website access codes, or print supplements that may come packaged with the bound book. The art and science of compensation practice. Strategic Compensation: A Human Resource Management Approach illustrates the art and science of compensation practice and its role in promoting a company's competitive advantage. The seventh edition was thoroughly revised, and now includes current statistics and a new chapter offering the latest information to compensation professionals.

Strategic Compensation in Canada Student Simulation Manual provides students with the opportunity to design an entire compensation system, right from strategy formulation to implementation of the new pay structure, complete with market-based actual dollars attached to the pay ranges. This simulation has been specifically designed by its authors (Richard Long and Henry Ravichaner) to utilize all the steps along the road map to effective compensation, as described in the Strategic Compensation in Canada text.

COMPENSATION, 8th Edition, by Milkovich and Newman is the market-leading text in this course area.
