The first approach is for the adjuster to “guessimate” (a combination of guessing and estimating) based on what claims with similar injuries have cost in the past. The second approach is to use a statistical reserve where all claims have the same initial reserve amount based on the historical average cost of claims.

Holding on to experienced claims adjusters is important for keeping your business running smoothly, as well as training the next generation of claims adjusters. However, seasoned adjusters won't stay and younger workers might not even dare join the ranks if the adjuster role lacks what workers want.
