'The Keeping' book #2 of the Law of the Lycans series was another good read by this very talented author. This part of the story focuses on Ryne & Melody Greene.

The Keeping (Law of the Lycans: #2) by Nicky Charles

The Keeping was probably my least favorite. The actual keeping law was believable enough, but it was hard to imagine these packs going straight to such a drastic outcome. Having read the other books prior to this, I would have expected them to first get the werewolf Damage Control unit involved and gone about it in a different way.

The only - I'll call it negative about this series (and I really wish I could think Of a better word, less harsh) is that the series is "the law of the Lycans" and while I love love love all "others" I wish that the characters from the first three books could have been carried over into the later books a bit.
